DETAILED ACTION

Claims 1-47 are pending in this application.

Election/Restrictions

Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

Group I, claim(s) 1-45, drawn to a sample preparation method for a medium suspected of containing contaminants.

Group II, claim(s) 46, drawn to a kit for the determination of contaminants in a medium.

Group III, claim(s) 47, drawn to use of a closed, sterile filter device.

The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: PCT Rule 13.2 requires that unity of invention only exists when the shared same or corresponding technical feature is a contribution over the prior art. The inventions listed as Groups I-III do not relate to a single general inventive concept because they lack the same or corresponding special technical feature. The "special technical feature" of Group II is either a sterile filter device or an agent capable of releasing a detectable moiety upon interaction with contaminants. Longoria (US 5,081,017) teaches a sterile (inherently or would not be enabled) filter device and Koumara et al. (US 4,591,554) teaches a non-fluorescent umbelliferone derivative that upon interaction with microorganisms will release a fluorescent umbelliferone derivative.

This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

Each of the genus of species are as follows:

- 1) contaminants (as described in claim 3)
- 2) liquid medium (as described in claim 5)
- 3) enzyme (as described in claim 15)
- 4) substrate (as described in claim 18)

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species from each of the four genus as appropriate to the elected group to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

The following claim(s) are generic: All claims are generic.

The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: The contaminants are directed to different species of microorganisms sharing no common technical feature and having different structures, habitats and compositions, the liquid mediums are unique from one another in terms of composition and derivation, the enzymes are distinct in terms of structure and preferred substrate, and the substrates are distinct in terms of structure and chemical composition.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.

Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
